

Neha Adari is a Jackson Preparatory School graduate and current junior at Washington University in St. Louis. In her free time, she enjoys painting, traveling, and interior design. She aspires to contribute towards efforts alleviating health disparities.

Akhila Adari is a student at the Jackson Preparatory School in the 12th grade. Her favorite hobbies include baking and fashion. Her philatelic interests are in travel stamps.

Mahesh Arjun Adari is a 3rd grade student and enjoys being a member of the Jackson Philatelic Society. His hobbies include playing sports like baseball and golf. Along with stamps, he enjoys collecting cars.